N.B 13 AFRICAN STREET OAKLANDS

Dear Member,

Have any of you ANY IDEA what it is like to convene the Black Sash Morning Market :

I don't think you have, otherwise I would have been inundated by support.

We have featured in the news a lot this year and the more publicity we get the greater the demands on the office and the more money we need to run it. Those of you who cannot help in the office can contribute to the Morning Market, which makes the office possible.

You have been so magnificent in the past - but at the moment I am worried because so little seems to be happening.

1. TOMBOLA - We have 80 bottles. We need 1000. We can use any bottle filled with anything except specimens.
2. BOUTIQUE - Short of clothes - jewellery, beads, bags, scarves etc.,
3. WHITE ELEPHANT - Have you forgotten? Disgorge your surplus E.P.N.S. vases, garden furniture, lamps, wheelbarrows, prams, PLEASE.
4. CAKES - No excuses for not supporting this stall. Make one day next week BLACK SASH BAKING DAY. FREEZE AND STORE. Have you heard of airtight tins?
5. GARDEN - Spring is here, have you forgotten the great outdoors? Start potting now if you have not already started.
6. PRODUCE - This stall won't get off the ground unless you PRODUCE.
7. BOOKS - Jill Wentzel has ^{not} been able to find a storage venue for this year's books and is having to use the entrance hall of her house. She wants no books delivered before October 15th.

Furthermore, please remember that your main contribution to the book stall is the act of delivery. We cannot fetch books from all over the town.

THESE ARE THE WORST GAPS, WHICH DOES NOT MEAN - OTHER STALLS DON'T NEED YOUR HELP

BEER/LUNCH/GARDEN

Believing that the nicest thing about our Morning Market is meeting everybody we like, Ernie Wentzel, Keith and Rosemary Maisels and Maureen Goldblatt have decided to run a beer/lunch/garden for us this time - so start getting in the mood to stay on and tell your friends.

PLEASE take the trouble to telephone me and all the Convenors.

STOP PRESS :

Shirley Moss has offered to run an Irish/Coffee adjunct to the beer garden and anyone who knows Shirley Moss will appreciate how superb this will be.
